WILLIAMS COLLEGE GRADUATE PROGRAM IN THE HISTORY OF ART
MASTER’S DEGREE SYMPOSIUM PRESENTATION PERMISSION FORM

The recording/s of your graduate lecture will be preserved in the archives of Williams College and the library of the Sterling and Francine Clark Art Institute. The College and the Clark have the right in all cases to maintain and preserve the recording/s, both in hardcopy and electronic format, and to make such copies as the College and the Clark require for preservation purposes. Individuals with a legitimate educational or scholarly interest, as determined by the College or the Clark, will be able to view/listen to the recording/s of the lecture on the premises of the College Archives and the Clark Library.

In addition, we request that you indicate below which of the following permissions you agree to provide the College and the Clark (check one):

Permission to the College and the Clark to reproduce for research purposes the recording/s of the lecture or any portion thereof, and to distribute, transmit, and/or display the recording/s of the lecture or any portion thereof in all existing and future media, for the College’s and Clark Art Institute’s nonprofit educational purposes:

___ I give permission.

___ I give permission after the year ____.

___ I do not give permission.

I am the author of the lecture (except for any third-party materials that are presented and credited as such) and have the right to grant to the College and the Clark the permissions listed above. I understand that I retain the copyright in the presentation, and that the permissions that I am giving to the College and the Clark are non-exclusive licenses, meaning I can grant permission to another to use my presentation.
